

CREED

For Followers of Jesus Christ

I have decided to follow Jesus. I believe that He is God in the flesh, and I have received Him as my personal Lord and Savior. Having entered into a restored relationship with my Heavenly Father, the Creator himself, I will commit to spending time with Him daily. I will listen carefully for His voice each day, as I allow Him to use me as a conduit of healing for others. I will pay attention to how the Holy Spirit will direct me to influence others towards Jesus, and I will make loving God and loving others my highest priorities. I commit to growing in continual communication with the Father through prayer, and I give permission to the Holy Spirit to direct me in how I manage my time, my talent, and my treasure. In doing these things, I choose to seek God and His kingdom first, believing that He will provide for the other concerns of my life. I also accept the charge to now give it away, realizing that I am commissioned to make disciples and offer spiritual coaching to others. Choosing to follow Jesus will be my daily decision, and my lifelong pursuit. Choosing to follow Jesus will change everything.
